

Survivor Clover Country

Got Green 4-H In-Service

February 4, 2008

Lesson Outline

Pass out 3x5 cards as they come in

1. Introductions: 5-10 minutes
Betty, Carolyn and Nikki – Need to brainstorm for a creative beginning
2. Developmental Stages of 4-H Youth Development Professionals – 10 minutes
Betty Wingerter (handout)
3. How has our philosophy evolved? What has been our staying power, motivation. Work, personal time and scholarly pursuits. Share individually with audience.
Betty, Carolyn, and Nikki
4. Questions and answers (hopefully) from audience and from 3x5 cards. 10-15 minutes
5. Our Valuable Time – Carolyn (handout) 5 minutes
6. Survivor Action Plan – Nikki 10 minutes
7. Closing remarks, EEET's

Notes:

Carolyn is purchasing chocolate, our #1 stress reliever

Carolyn is also looking for cheap scarves and juggling balls as props and for the tables, we can give them away.

Circle time management tool.

Nikki –
EEET's

Survivor Action Plan
Sending Vicki Schwartz copy of handouts

Betty
Creative introduction including Carolyn and Nikki