

4-H EVENT/OPPORTUNITY:

Ohio 4-H Volunteer Conference
Bob Evans Farms 4-H Volunteer Recognition Luncheon

DATE:

Saturday, March 10, 2012

LOCATION:

Columbus Convention Center
Columbus, OH

REGISTRATION:

Registration packets are available in county offices or on-line at www.ohio4h.org/volunteerconference. Registrations must be postmarked by February 10, 2012, to the State 4-H Office, accompanied by a registration fee of $35.00 per person. The registration fee includes lunch. No late or on-site registrations will be accepted.

GOALS/OBJECTIVES:

1. Provide expanded educational opportunities for individuals to develop their knowledge, leadership, attitudes, skills, and aspirations as Ohio 4-H volunteers.
2. Recognize volunteers who have reached significant milestones in their dedication of time, efforts, and resources to Ohio 4-H programs and their impact upon Ohio 4-H and the lives of Ohio 4-H youth.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION:

The Ohio 4-H Volunteer Conference provides volunteers with the opportunity to interact with other volunteers, participants, and program leaders in an educational setting, while enhancing their knowledge, skills, attitudes, and aspirations through seminars. A 4-H Market Place will be specially created for this event to house exhibitors, provide resource materials for 4-H programs, and display papers on topics related to the listed interest areas. The highlight of the conference, the Volunteer Recognition Luncheon, sponsored by Bob Evans Farms, Inc., will be held to honor current and former Hall of Fame members, tenured volunteers (of five year interval milestones and service of 40+ years), and recipients of the following awards: Meritorious Service, Innovator, Community Service, Recruitment, Membership, Leadership Development, and Friend of 4-H.
